Denny's Corporate Commitment:

- Denny's is committed to embracing the unique qualities of each employee and valuing differences in thought, culture, and experiences. We have built a diverse and inclusive workforce and demonstrate our commitment by making diversity top-of-mind and celebrating it every day.
- Our internal and external culture promotes our openness to all people, ideas and perspectives, and highlights our commitment to diversity while aligning with our corporate strategy and core values.

Diversity, Equality & Inclusion - Mission, Vision & Values

- Mission: To build, nurture and grow Denny’s culture, wildly diverse, demonstrably inclusive and unquestionably fair and equal in opportunity for all; To be a place that employs all, buys from all, promotes all, serves all and supports all as a natural extension of who we are.
- Vision: We will become the industry leader in all areas of Diversity, Equality and Inclusion. This status will allow us to not only lead for our people and society, but also grow our business results for all of our various stakeholders.
- Values: Embrace openness is one of our five guiding principles and part of the values all must follow to work at Denny’s. Embrace Openness means we value all people and all areas of Diversity, Equality and Inclusion.

Partnerships:

- For more than 60 years, local families and communities across the country have made Denny’s a neighborhood gathering spot. We’re proud of that heritage and, like any good neighbor, we help support the diverse causes that our communities care about – from education initiatives and minority business conferences, to childhood hunger programs and fundraisers.

- Examples of partnerships and organizations supported (past and present):
  - AAA Scholarship Foundation
  - BET Experience Community Impact Awards
  - Greater Women’s Business Council
  - Hispanic Association of Colleges & Universities
  - HACR - Hispanic Association on Corporate Responsibility
Workforce (Denny’s Corporate/Company Restaurants):

The board of Denny’s Corporation consists of 10 directors, 50% of which are minorities and 30% women. We believe a diverse workplace is a strong workplace and should reflect the communities we serve.

The brand has offered a POWER Fund (Power of We Employee Relief Fund) since 2005.

- The company has raised $697,824 since the program’s inception helping 551 people/families along the way.

Franchises:

- Denny’s has 108 international locations
- As of July 2018:
  - 49% of our total restaurants are minority owned
  - 5% of our total restaurants are owned by members of the LGBT community
  - 22% of our total restaurants are owned by women actively participating in the business
  - 90% of our total restaurants are franchise owned

Supplier Diversity:

- Our mission at Denny’s is to establish beneficial business relationships with diverse suppliers who share our commitment to exceptional quality, excellent customer service and competitive pricing.
- In order to develop and strengthen partnerships with minority and women-owned suppliers, Denny’s has spent nearly $2 billion with diverse and disadvantaged suppliers since our Supplier Diversity Program was initiated in 1993.
- In 2017, diverse and disadvantaged businesses represented 13.2% of Denny's purchases.
- 33.5% of Denny's diverse spending is with Hispanic suppliers of goods and services.
- Hispanic represent Denny's largest spending segment by $3.4 million with African American ranked #2.
- Denny's has been a long term supporter of United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.
In the area of local community engagement, Denny's is a supporter of the Upstate Hispanic Alliance organization with plans to host a local Hispanic Cultural Celebration during Hispanic Heritage month.

Supply Chain:
- Eggs: In 2016 Denny's committed to serving and sourcing 100 percent cage-free eggs in all of its U.S. restaurants by 2026.
- Antibiotics & Synthetic Growth Hormones: We support the responsible application of antibiotics for the purpose of maintaining animal health managed through veterinary oversight in accordance with GFI 213. We are committed to sourcing as much product as possible from suppliers that support our position against using non-therapeutic antibiotics and synthetic growth hormones.
- Cattle: We continue to strongly emphasize our purchase preference with suppliers who use polled breeding stock versus the painful practice of dehorning cattle, and emphasize the use of humane stunning methodologies. We are committed to sourcing as much product as possible from these preferred suppliers.
- Hogs: Since 2012, we have been committed to sourcing our pork from suppliers that practice the limited use of gestation crates for the housing of sows, and are committed to sourcing as much product as possible from these preferred suppliers.
- Turkeys: Since 2011, we have been using suppliers that practice the most humane slaughter method (CAK), and received recognition from PETA for our commitment.
- BROILER CHICKENS: Denny’s understands the issues surrounding the welfare of broilers in the supply chain, and stands in support of the humane treatment of these animals. Denny’s has been a longtime proponent of humane stunning methodologies for all agricultural animals, including but not limited to chickens.
  - Denny’s believes in and supports prudent and responsible efforts toward these ongoing transitions.
  - The development of healthier bird strains,
  - Reduced stocking levels,
  - Providing environmental enrichments, and
  - The move to controlled atmosphere processing.

Hungry for Education Scholarship Program:
- In an effort to help fight childhood hunger and promote education, Denny’s launched the Hungry for Education Scholarship program in 2011, and has since awarded more than $1MM in combined scholarships to deserving elementary, high school and college students across the country.
WELCOME TO AMERICA’S DINER®

- Close to 400 scholarships awarded to students since the program’s inception.
- The annual program, which starts in September, asks students to submit essays on how they can help fight childhood hunger in their communities, and one deserving student is selected by Denny’s to have their idea be put into action in their community.
- Denny’s identified strategic partners to help award scholarships and to impact the lives of high-need students across the country, including:
  - AAA Scholarship Foundation: Provides economic and other assistance to economically disadvantaged families to enable them to select the best schools for their children (www.aaascholarships.org/schools/).
  - Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU): The only national educational association representing Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs) and more than 400 colleges and universities committed to Hispanic higher education success in the U.S., Puerto Rico, Latin America, and Spain (www.hacu.net/).
  - Magic Johnson Foundation: Founded by Earvin “Magic” Johnson in 1991 and works to develop programs and support community-based organizations that address the educational, health and social needs of ethnically diverse, urban communities (www.magicjohnson.org/).
  - Step up for Students: Since 2002, Step Up For Students has offered scholarships for low-income students in grades K-12. The program, which administers the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Program, empowers families to choose the best learning environment for their children’s learning needs (www.stepupforstudents.org/).
  - The Tom Joyner Foundation: Provides programming initiatives and partnerships in support of historically black colleges and universities (HBCU) and their communities (www.tomjoynerfoundation.org/).
  - Urban League of the Upstate: A non-profit organization committed to the principle of equal opportunity for all citizens in housing, education, employment, and economic development, without regard to race or socioeconomic status (www.urbanleagueupstate.org/scholarships-2/).
  - U.S. Hispanic Leadership Institute: A Chicago-based national, nonprofit, nonpartisan, tax-exempt organization that has developed into one of the most powerful, nationally and internationally recognized Latino organizations in the country (www.ushli.org/).
  - U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce: The oldest and largest national, nonprofit, non-partisan organization representing all Asian American and Asian American-related groups in business, sciences, the arts, sports, education, public and community services (www.uspaacc.com/).

- The James E. Clyburn Scholarship & Research Foundation: The James E. Clyburn Scholarship & Research Foundation has donated $440,000 to endowments at several South Carolina colleges and universities. To date, the Foundation has provided over 1,200 Clyburn scholars with more than $1.1 million in college scholarships. These cash awards have been matched by another $1.1 million from various colleges and universities (https://www.jecsrf.org/).

OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS (ADD DESCRIPTIONS AND SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNT):

- Alpha Kappa Alpha: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated (AKA) was founded on a mission comprised of five basic tenets that have remained unchanged since the sorority’s inception more than a century ago. Alpha Kappa Alpha’s mission is to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women, to study and help alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature, to maintain a progressive interest in college life, and to be of “Service to All Mankind” (http://aka1908.com/).

- Wilberforce University: Founded in 1856, Wilberforce University can trace its origin to a period of history before the Civil War, when the Ohio Underground Railroad was established as a means of escape for all those blacks who sought their freedom in the North from the yoke of slavery, one of the destination points of this railroad became Wilberforce University. As the Underground Railroad provided a route from physical bondage, the University was formed to provide an intellectual Mecca and refuge from slavery’s first rule: ignorance. Wilberforce University, the nation’s oldest private, historically black university, was named to honor the great 18th century abolitionist, William Wilberforce (http://wilberforce.edu/).

- Claflin University: Nearly 150 years ago, Claflin broke down barriers in higher education, making it the first South Carolina university open to all regardless of race. Today, Claflin continues to welcome exemplary students of all races and genders who demonstrate a passion to change not only their own circumstances, but to change the world as well. (http://claflin.edu/).

- The LINKS: The Links, Incorporated is an international, not-for-profit corporation, established in 1946. The membership consists of nearly 14,000 professional women of color in 283 chapters located in 41 states, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of the Bahamas. It is one of the nation’s oldest and largest volunteer service organizations of extraordinary women who are committed to enriching, sustaining and ensuring the culture and economic survival of African Americans and other persons of African ancestry (http://www.linksinc.org/about.shtml).

Share Our Strength ‘No Kid Hungry:’

- Denny’s continues its commitment to the fight against childhood hunger through other initiatives such as Share Our Strength’s ‘No Kid Hungry’ campaign, a national movement in October aimed at ending childhood hunger by connecting kids to the healthy food they need, every day.
- Denny’s own President and CEO John Miller serves on the board of this impactful organization and is an instrumental leader in these efforts.
- Denny’s first became a No Kid Hungry partner in 2011 and with annual program activations has raised more than $4.3 million to date.
- 2017 Goal of raising $1,000,000 as a system
  - Restaurants will fundraise from October 10 – December 3, 2017

Denny’s is committed to the health and wellbeing of this country, and part of that mission is to ensure our children receive proper nutrition to grow up strong and healthy.

Longstanding Partnership with The Tom Joyner Foundation:

- Since 2002, Denny's and The Tom Joyner Foundation have partnered to raise funds for programs that support:
